2 III. Timeliness.

3 All parties and counsel are expected to check in with Judge Weksler's chambers at least
4 five minutes prior to the ENE. If anyone anticipates arriving after the ENE's scheduled start
5 time, they must give prior notice by contacting chambers at 702-464-5570.

6 IV. Attendance requirements.

7 The in-person attendance of each of the following individuals is required for the entire
8 duration of the ENE: an attorney of record who will be participating in the trial of this case; all
9 parties appearing pro se, if any; all individual parties; for non-individual parties, a representative
10 with settlement authority up to the full amount of the claim. If any party is subject to coverage by 11 an insurance carrier, then a representative of the insurance carrier with settlement authority up to 12 the full amount of the claim must also be present for the entire duration of the ENE.

13 The Court may impose sanctions if any of the above individuals are not present for the 14 ENE.

15 V. Confidential written evaluation statement.

16 In preparation for the ENE, each party must submit a confidential written evaluation
17 statement for the Court's in-camera review. The purpose of the written evaluation is to assist the 18 undersigned in preparing for and conducting the ENE. To facilitate a meaningful discussion, the 19 parties' utmost candor is required. The written evaluation will not be seen by or shared with the 20 district or magistrate judge presiding over this matter. Each written evaluation will be securely
21 maintained and will be destroyed following the conclusion of the ENE.

22 The evaluation statement must adhere to the following requirements:

- 23 • The first paragraph must contain the names and titles of all attendees. For non-
24 individual parties present through a representative, you must indicate if there is a
25 dollar value above which you will need the approval of a board or similar body
26 and what that dollar value is. Each party may identify any persons connected with 27
28

1 a party opponent (including an insurer representative) whose presence might
2 substantially improve the utility of the ENE or the prospects of settlement.

- 3 • The written evaluation must not exceed 10 written pages, not including
4 exhibits. The entire written evaluation must not exceed 50 pages, including
5 exhibits. The parties should not include as exhibits any items available on the 6 case docket. A citation to the ECF No. will suffice. If either party desires to 7 exceed these page limits, they must seek the Court's approval. The Court will not
8 grant approval unless the requesting party can establish how the additional pages
9 will aid the Court in helping the parties reach settlement.
- 10 • The written evaluation must briefly describe the substance of the suit and address
11 the party's views on the key liability and damages issues. Each written 12 evaluation must contain the elements of each claim and an analysis discussing
13 how the facts relate to those elements. Further, each party must discuss the 14 strongest and weakest points of their case, both factually and legally, including a 15 candid evaluation of the merits of their positions.
- 16 • The written evaluation must also address whether there are legal or factual issues 17 whose early resolution would reduce significantly the scope of the dispute or 18 contribute to settlement negotiations.
- 19 • The parties must each include a comprehensive history, if any, of settlement
20 negotiations occurring before the ENE. The final paragraph of the evaluation
21 statement must contain the opening offer or demand that the party will make 22 at the ENE.
- 23 • If there are documents, pictures, recordings, etc., out of which the underlying suit 24 arose, or whose availability would materially advance the purpose of the 25 evaluation session, the parties must include copies of those items as exhibits to 26 their evaluation statements. If a party desires to include deposition transcripts as 27
28

1 an exhibit, the party should include only excerpts that the party desires to 2 emphasize.

- 3 • Each party must certify that they have made initial disclosures under FED. R. CIV.
4 P. 26(a)(1), and plaintiff must certify that he or she has provided a computation of 5 damages pursuant to FED. R. CIV. P. 26(a)(1)(A)(iii).
- 6 • The written evaluation must estimate the costs (including attorney's fees and costs)
7 of taking the case through summary judgment and through trial.
- 8 • Each party's written evaluation must be submitted directly to Judge
9 Weksler's chambers—Room 3071—by 4:00 PM on June 10, 2020. Do not 10 deliver or mail the written evaluations to the clerk's office and do not serve a
11 copy on opposing counsel.

12 VI. Electronic devices.

13 Recording the ENE proceedings is expressly prohibited. All attendees are permitted to 14 bring electronic devices, which they may use to access information necessary to participate in the 15 ENE or while the undersigned caucuses with other parties. Wi-fi connection information will be 16 provided during the ENE.

17 VII. Sanctions.

18 Failure to comply with this order's requirements may subject the noncompliant party to 19 sanctions under Local Rule IA 11-8 or Rule 16(f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
